

CSRC Society Awards

Practitioner of the Year

This individual demonstrates what it means to go above and beyond the call of duty in representing and supporting respiratory care in the category of Clinical Practice. Your nominee promotes higher standards in clinical practice and the advancement of the practice of the Respiratory Therapist to enhance optimal delivery of Respiratory Care to his/her patients. Please include where they work and a brief explanation of why they deserve to be recognized.

Past Three Award Winners: Derrick Davis, 2009; Glenn Straley, 2008; June Nowatski, 2007; Joan Balik, 2006

Leadership Practitioner of the Year Award:

The individual being nominated for Leadership Practitioner of the Year demonstrates support for the profession of Respiratory Care by his/her involvement at not only the local state society level but at the National Association level as well through longstanding membership of the AARC. This candidate has exceeded Leadership expectations and is an exemplary role model for all Respiratory Therapists. Your nominee creates mutual understanding, communication, and cooperation between all disciplines in the Respiratory Care profession. Please include where they work and a brief explanation of why they deserve to be recognized.

Past Three Award Winners: Lonnie Martinez, 2009; Shawn McNitt, 2008; Russell Woodruff, 2007; Laurie Ann Archer, 2006

Society Appreciation Award (Physician Recognition):

Your nominee has made outstanding contributions to the advancement and promotion of the respiratory care profession. This individual works to improve the understanding of the vital role that Respiratory Therapists play in the delivery of complete Health Care to Respiratory patients. The candidate demonstrates an attitude and practice of inclusion of the Respiratory Therapist as a vital member of the healthcare team. Please include where they work and a brief explanation of why they deserve to be recognized.

Past Three Award Winners: Dr. Kent Christopher, 2009; Dr. James Fisher, 2008; Dr. Neale Lange, 2007; Dr. Mary Warner, 2006

John Wolfe Memorial Award:

This individual has worked tirelessly for the awareness and prevention of respiratory diseases in our community. Your nominee demonstrates a passion for educating those individuals effected by pulmonary disease and gives of his/her time in this endeavor. This individual need not be an AARC member to qualify. Please include contact information and a brief explanation of why they deserve to be recognized.

Past Award Winners: Brenda Crowe, 2009; Keene Jorgensen, 2008; Diane Herrick, 2007